GEORGE HERMANN DERRY, Ph.D., LL.D., K.C.S.G.
President, Marygrove College, Detroit

As a biographical reference book, The American Catholic Who's Who is somewhat unique. Here you will find a muster-roll of men and women of achievement, from every conceivable avenue of human interest and occupation, gathered into this group on the principle of their absolute unanimity of conviction on the profoundest problems that can engage the mind of man,—the origin, the nature, the meaning and purpose of human life. Beyond the pale of the religion they profess, such perfect concord of opinion,—backed up by solid reasoning, sound principle and proof,—would be impossible to parallel in all the rich and varied records of the race.

Differ, of course, these people do, on all those accidental phases of politics, business, letters, science, and art that constitute the multitudinous complexity of our American life; but on questions of principle, on the eternal verities, on the moral motives and ideals that alone matter much for the happiness and progressive advance of civilized man, the careers sketched in these pages present to the world the inspiring spectacle of that deeper harmony of mind and heart that springs from their consistent philosophy and their universal Catholic faith.

Many misconceptions, all too current among our fellow-countrymen, will be corrected by a careful inspection of the careers summarily recorded in this book. For those who consider Catholics as almost wholly of recent immigrant stock, there is illumination in store from the innumerable names, constantly recurring, of descendants of early patriots and pioneers who, from pre-revolutionary days, have held in their hands the making of the history of the United States.

Others who are little accustomed to look to Catholics for culture or for eminence in science or the arts, will find proof on every page of high competence in the learned professions, in literature, in technical research, in music, the drama, the manifold activities of higher education, and in all that contributes to the amenity and artistic distinction of our national life.

Then again, to honest inquirers into the vigor and vitality of the appeal of Catholicism to the American mind, there must come reassuring revelations from the illustrious line of converts,—here repeating for the present a record out of the long past,—who have found happiness and peace of soul in the ancient Faith of their fathers.

This publication is designed, however, not to exploit the individual as such, but to individualize him only so as to depict in the concrete the contribution Catholics are making, at the present hour, to the land of their love and of their loyal allegiance.

Though the publishers,—I am assured,—over a period of four years, have exerted every endeavor to make this compilation truly representative and, so far as possible, complete and accurate in detail, doubtless many names will be missed; but with the interest the work is sure to enlist among intelligent and well-informed readers everywhere,—in libraries, public and private, in institutions of learning, in newspaper offices through which flow the daily chronicles of the nation,—such omissions will be readily supplied in the next edition; and as new issues appear, thrusting this first roll of honor into a fast receding past, the present roster will still remain an imperishable record and reminder that no conscientious historian of tomorrow will care or dare to overlook.

But it is not amiss to add that this volume tries to list, not so much the "best Catholics," as those who are perhaps best known in the professional and financial world, or for their more conspicuous participation in the civic and social movements of our time. In fact, most of those in whom we take our highest pride,— our nuns, our missioners, consecrated souls whose lives of prayer and praise, of penance, of loving and vicarious sacrifice, though "hid with Christ in God," bring down blessings unbounded upon the countless communities they serve throughout the land,—all such are intentionally omitted; of them, we have nought to say: their characters and careers are already recorded, and will one day stand revealed for all the world to read, in the infinitely bigger and better Book of Life.

May The American Catholic Who's Who enjoy the wide welcome it deserves!

The editors cordially invite communications for the perfecting of future editions of the work. Correspondence should be addressed in care of the Publishers.

Acknowledgments

THE only other edition of The American Catholic Who's Who was edited by the late Georgina Pell Curtis and published by the Herder Book Company, of St. Louis, in 1911. Hence, the present volume is an entirely new work. It will be revised and issued biennially.

The absence of such names as, from the viewpoint of the individual user of the book, should be included, does not necessarily indicate intentional omission. There is the probability that failure to furnish data on the part of some who received our questionnaire or oversight on the part of the compiling staff may be responsible. We earnestly request proposal of names for the next edition.

Co-operators in the present edition include Benedict Elder, editor of The Record, Louisville, Ky.; Rt. Rev. Nelson H. Baker, of Buffalo, N. Y.; Anna C. Minogue, associate editor of The Catholic Telegraph, Cincinnati, O.; Paul Day, of Philadelphia, Pa.; Rev. E. C. La More, O. P., of the editorial staff of Dominicana, Washington, D. C.; Rev. These acknowledgments are an expression of our gratitude as well as a record of our obligation.

REHEARSE TO HARROW AGAIN

The farmer, after plowing his field, goes over it with a harrow to break up the clods and level the ground. Sometimes, in order to make the field still smoother, he harrows it over again. Old French herce meant "a harrow," hercier "to harrow," and rehercier "to harrow over again," borrowed in Middle English as rehercen, Modern English rehearse. Now we rehearse, not the plowed field, but a speech, a play, or the like. There are thousands of such stories about the origins of English words in

The IDEAL college for YOUR daughter

MARYGROVE COLLEGE

DETROIT

A National Catholic College for Women

THE MARYGROVE IDEA

WHY go to College? What is College FOR?
What TYPE is the MARYGROVE GIRL? What can she DO?

The MARYGROVE graduate is a BACHELOR of ARTS—in our Catholic Culture an ART means the RIGHT WAY OF DOING A THING—and the degree is granted, not for a mechanical accumulation of "credit hours" or miscellaneous "points," but for the proved possession of those RIGHT WAYS OF DOING THINGS, those ARTS, those POSITIVE and distinctive PERSONAL POWERS that have always characterized the AUTHENTIC Bachelor of Arts.

The MARYGROVE GIRL strives to acquire those capacities that constitute, for our day and generation, the SEVEN LIBERAL ARTS:

1. THE ART OF BEHAVIOR BEFORE GOD: CATHOLIC CHARACTER, the habit of SELF-CONTROL through responsiveness to motives developed by the knowledge and love and practice of our HOLY RELIGION.
2. THE ART OF BEHAVIOR AMONG MEN: SOCIAL SUCCESS through the power of PERSONALITY and social CHARM. Who have influenced YOU most in life?—people of PERSONALITY, that graceful but dynamic manner of prevailing upon others unto good; that poise, composure, gracious dignity of demeanor and rational self-assurance that are nowhere better cultivated than through CAMPUS CONTACTS that reproduce ideal conditions of CULTURED CATHOLIC SOCIAL LIFE.
3. THE ART OF EXPRESSION: The mastery of the MOTHER TONGUE, the spell of the written and spoken word, manipulated with clarity and correctness and some degree of polished elegance and ease.
4. THE ART OF REASONING: Neo-Scholastic PHILOSOPHY, the only genuine RATIONALISM left in the world today, with its true solution of the NATURE, ORIGIN, and DESTINY of MAN, brought to bear on the burning SOCIAL ISSUES of the hour.
5. THE ART OF HISTORICAL REALIZATION, for our own lives, of the INTELLECTUAL GLORIES of our CATHOLIC CULTURAL tradition, through visualized proof of the proposition: CIVILIZATION is the FAITH—the FAITH is CIVILIZATION.
6. THE ART OF LEISURE: Its utilization and enjoyment in later life—the development of CULTURAL INTERESTS to outlast college years, through the knowledge and love of BOOKS, MUSIC, and ART.
7. THE ART OF MAKING A LIVING: Providing every graduate with the POWER, when need arises, of SELF-SUPPORT—through the acquisition of a SPECIALIZED SCIENTIFIC TECHNIQUE enabling the graduate to become a College or High School Teacher, Social Worker, Banking or Financial Expert's Assistant, Business Secretary, Journalist, Librarian, Artist, Musician, Successful Wife and Mother in an Ideal Catholic Home.

FACULTY—Sisters, Servants of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, assisted by a corps of distinguished lay and clerical professors, all with higher university degrees.

SUPERBLY APPOINTED laboratories, libraries, studios, conservatories, and museums.

MARYGROVE CAMPUS, beautifully-wooded, eighty-acre park in an exclusive residential section of Detroit, affords ample scope for golf, tennis, hockey, skating, archery, horseback-riding and other healthful athletic sports.

DETROIT, at the door of MARYGROVE, provides, under proper supervision, all the multiple opportunities, social, intellectual, artistic, of a great metropolis.

For CATALOGUE, address the REGISTRAR, MARYGROVE COLLEGE, DETROIT, MICH.
